

Scott County Board of Supervisors
December 2, 2025 8:31 a.m.

The Board of Supervisors met as a committee of the whole and pursuant to adjournment with Paustian, Beck, Bribiesco, Dickson and Maxwell present.

Conservation Agronomist Emery Davis and Environmental Specialist Alyssa Comer of the Lower Cedar Watershed Management Authority gave a presentation. They reviewed a main focus on water quality and flooding. They also reviewed working with farmers on conservation efforts including edge of field structures and cover crops.

Fleet Manager Mark Garrow reviewed the purchase of one (1) 2026 Ford Ranger 4x4 XL pickup truck for Planning & Development from Stiver's Ford in the amount of $39,624.00.

MEDIC EMS Director Paul Andorf presented a discussion of MEDIC EMS rebranding and logo design. He reviewed rebranding to incorporate Scott County Colors, logo development, reflective safety striping and lights.

Supervisor Bribiesco asked questions and expressed her concerns regarding safety with the two color concepts presented.

County Administrator Mahesh Sharma reviewed revisions to Policy 37 – General Assistance Guidelines would be presented Thursday at the Board meeting.

Sharma moved item # 10 next on the agenda.

Supervisor Jean Dickson reviewed a revised CEO shared liability agreement for the Eastern Iowa Workforce Development Area. She pointed out the two modifications to the agreement.

Budget and Administrative Services Director David Farmer presented a discussion of Quarterly Budgeting for Outcomes Report. He touched on golf course revenues, Veteran's services, MEDIC payments for services, and Sheriff's Office traffic control.

Farmer also presented a discussion of Quarterly Financial Summary Report of Actual Revenues and Expenditures. He reviewed staffing levels, Risk Management Insurance premiums, housing inmates out of county and the health insurance fund. He also reviewed local option sales tax.

Farmer also reviewed quarterly financial reports from various county offices.

Moved by Paustian, seconded by Bribiesco at 10:11 a.m. a motion to adjourn.
All Ayes.
